Creative Journey: Special Places

“A dominant impulse on encountering beauty is to wish to hold on to it, to possess it and give it weight in one’s life. There is an urge to say, ‘I was here, I saw this and it mattered to me.’”

Alain de Botton

“Creativity is allowing yourself to make mistakes. Art is knowing which ones to keep.”

Scott Adams

“This world is but a canvas to our imagination.”

Henry David Thoreau

Creative Journey: Special Places Assignment

Prepare:

Find a photo or picture of a place that you traveled to or would like to travel to.

Class time:

We will create a work of art using a travel photo or picture. Study and reflect on your image. Does it bring up memories, hopes, or feelings? Can you convey a feeling or story with your artwork? Use any media you think will work best for you.
